MOTION FOR STAY OF THE PROCEEDINGS

Defendants Ronnie E. Goade, Sr., Ronnie E. Goade, Sr. Revocable Trust, and REG Oklahoma Acquisitions, LLC, hereby request that the Court stay the above-captioned action for forty-five (45) days because Defendants have now retained new principal counsel to replace the former principal counsel, McAfee & Taft, P.C. New counsel will need this period of time to obtain a copy of the case file, and to familiarize himself with the case history, the facts, and the legal issues adequately in order to respond to Plaintiff's pending discovery requests and discovery motions.

In support of this Motion, Defendants aver as follows:

1. On or about August 25, 2003, Defendants replaced their principal counsel, the law firm of McAfee & Taft, P.C., with new principal counsel, the law firm of Edwards and Angell, LLP. This change in lead counsel necessitates a forty-five (45) day stay in the proceedings.

2. McAfee & Taft, P.C. will soon file a Motion to Withdraw, and, on this day, Defendants have filed a motion to admit Marc L. Zaken, Esquire and John G. Stretton, Esquire, partner and associate, respectively, of Edwards and Angell, LLP, pro hac vice.

3. A forty-five (45) day stay is now needed so that new lead counsel can obtain the case file from McAfee & Taft, P.C., become familiar with the case by reviewing the case file, pleadings, and relevant documents involved. Indeed, the file is extensive, and the factual and legal issues presented by the various claims and legal theories by Plaintiff are numerous. Moreover, Edwards and Angell, LLP does not yet have the case file, which is presently being copied.

4. This is a complex case, which began more than one year ago, in which the Plaintiff has presented numerous legal theories sounded in fraud. The case involves disputes over a complicated series of transactions and the ownership of a patent, and the record includes, as well, a prior patent infringement case that goes back to 1997. Local counsel, Bazelon, Less & Feldman, P.C. has had a limited role in the case, and has generally been active only in coordinating filings with the Court and drafting minor, non-substantive pleadings. Therefore, local counsel is not in a position to perform any substantive work on this matter during the period that Edwards and Angell, LLP requires to acquire an adequate understanding of the factual and legal matters.

5. On August 25, 2003, almost immediately upon being retained by Defendants, Mr. Zaken, along with Mr. McClintock, Esquire, of McAfee & Taft, P.C., telephoned counsel for Plaintiff, David Perlman, Esquire, to inform him of Defendants' decision to change their principal attorneys.

6. During this conversation, Mr. Zaken suggested to Mr. Perlman a stay in the proceedings so that Mr. Zaken could first obtain a copy of the file and then familiarize himself with the case.

7. Mr. Zaken told Mr. Perlman that he particularly needed this time in order to be able to adequately respond to Plaintiff's Motion to Compel The Production of Documents and Deposition Testimony Claimed To Be Privileged, due on, August 27, 2003, and to Plaintiff's Request for Admissions, due on September 15, 2003.

8. Mr. Perlman would agree only to a one-to-two week extension of time to respond to Plaintiff's pending Motion to Compel The Production of Documents and Deposition Testimony Claimed To Be Privileged.

9. Such a limited extension would not permit new counsel to adequately learn the case and the legal and factual issues involved. A prior understanding of all those issues is necessary to respond to Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and Plaintiff's Request for Admissions.

10. On August 26, 2003 Mr. Perlman informed Mr. McClintock that since no agreement was reached, all due dates remained as governed by the applicable rules.

11. It is not Defendants' intention to unnecessarily delay this case, but only to allow new counsel a sufficient amount of time to review, comprehend, and understand the case, so that they can provide an adequate and professional defense.

12. In the alternative, if the Court should deny a stay, Defendants respectfully request that the Court grant a two-week extension of time, beginning from the date of the Order denying the Motion, in which Defendants may answer the pending Motion to Compel and the Request for Admissions.

WHEREFORE, Defendants respectfully request that this Court stay the above-captioned action case for forty-five (45) days, or, alternatively, grant a two-week extension of time to respond.

Respectfully submitted,

By:
